

Fucus Fugue's Privacy Principles:

- We believe in the Golden Rule. We wouldn't do anything to you that we wouldn't do to ourselves. We care deeply about your privacy.
- We hate spam just as much as you do.
- You're in control.
- Your data is your data.

Let's break these principles down.

Spam:

We don't sell, rent, or share your personal information with third parties. The only exception is when the law requires us to do so.

We'll get your permission before we use your email or address to send you Fucus Fugue's updates or marketing materials.

Control:

You can update your account information and preferences whenever you want to.

Fucus Fugue only accesses your information with your permission, when it's required by law, or if we need to access it to maintain our system.

Data

If you choose to terminate your relationship with us, you can ask for all of your data back if we still have it. We only maintain copies that the law requires us to keep.

Fucus Fugue will protect personal information by reasonable security safeguards against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification.

Fucus Fugue sends a tracking cookie to your computer that contains a unique identifying number. Fucus Fugue uses this number to provide you with a continuous experience and to record how our service is being used.

Changes

As Fucus Fugue grows, our privacy policy will grow with us. We reserve the right to make changes as needed. If we make a significant change to our privacy policy, we'll let you know.
